Texts/Readings

Textbook

Our textbook is N. Gregory Mankiw, Macroeconomics, either the 9th (New York: Worth, 2016) or preferably the 10th edition (New York: Worth, 2019). (You don't have to buy access to online exercises so you are spared that expense.)

(Please note that I customarily refer to the chapter numbers, and I'll be sure to mention where they differ between the ninth and tenth editions.)

We work our way through Chapters 1-10, aspects of Chapters 11-13, 16-17, and Chapters 14-15, 18-20, and the Epilogue (9th ed.) / Chapters 1-10, aspects of Chapters 11-13 and 19, and Chapters 14-18, and the Epilogue (10th ed.).

Other Readings

I distribute handouts that I expect you to read alongside the textbook.

Course Requirements and Assignments

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities.” More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>.

There are three components to your grade: three examinations (60%), your ten best quizzes (20%), and a writing assignment (20%).

All three exams consist very largely, if not entirely, of multiple-choice questions created by your instructor. The two shorter exams on Monday, September 27, (worth 15%) and Monday, November 1, (worth 20%) emphasize what we have covered in the previous four weeks. The final exam on Thursday, December 9, 7:15 – 9:30 AM is comprehensive but with a major emphasis on what we have covered since the second exam, and is worth 25%.

There are at least 15 objective quizzes worth 20%. Each quiz is worth two points, allowing students to drop or miss at least five quizzes. Quiz scores are calculated pro rata so that 10/10 on a quiz is worth two points, and 5/10 is worth one point. Quizzes are based chiefly on the assigned readings and lectures. There are no make-ups for any quizzes.

The writing assignment (details TBA) is worth 20%, and is due by 6 PM on Wednesday, November 10. The Writing Center is there to help you.

Classroom Protocol

Class attendance is not mandatory and will not directly affect a student's grade. However, students who miss classes, in addition to dropping quizzes, will very likely consign themselves to doing poorly on their exams. I therefore strongly encourage students to attend fully every class.

Please note that the university is closed for Labor Day (Monday, September 6, Veterans Day (Thursday, November 11), and the Thanksgiving Holiday (on Wednesday, November 24 the campus is open but it is a non-instructional day, and on Thursday-Friday, November 25-26, the campus is closed).

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course.

“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University's Academic Integrity policy, located at <https://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F15-7.pdf>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <https://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <https://www.sjsu.edu/aec/students/register-with-aec/index.php> to establish a record of their disability.
