These are the most “readable” finance books. I’m counting on you to read the material before class. This will provide you with the foundation necessary to understand a lecture that builds on (not repeats) the material in the book. Keep a notebook handy. When you don’t understand something in the reading write your question in as much detail as possible and ask me during class.

Classroom Protocol

When and if homework is assigned it is intended to assist in preparing you for the mid-terms and final examination. Late homework will NOT be accepted after the due date.

Regular class attendance is important directly because homework will count toward your grade, and indirectly in that class lectures will contain material that you will be responsible for, but that may not be covered in the text. Thus, it is highly recommended that you attend class on a regular and consistent basis.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, etc. Information on add/drops are available at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/soc-fall/rec-324.html . Information about late drop is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/sac/advising/latedrops/policy/ . Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for adding and dropping classes.

Assignments and Grading Policy

There will be three mid-terms and one final exam. Exams will consist of a combination of quantitative, problem solving and essay questions. Examination blue books are not required for examinations. There will be no make up exams. Late exams will not be counted.

Your final course grade will be determined by two intermediate exam (25%), final exam (30%) and your homework (20%).
