DEADLINES FOR MAY 2016 MA AND MFA GRADUATES

If you are planning to graduate in May 2016, you should file your official program (the 'Petition for Advancement to Graduate Candidacy' by October 1, 2015. Applications (or reactivations of applications) for May 2016 graduation must be filed by February 10, 2016. These forms can also be found at the GAPE forms website: <http://www.sjsu.edu/gape/forms/>

MA COMPREHENSIVE EXAM SCHEDULE

The Spring 2016 MA exam will be given February 6, 2016 (Part I) and February 13, 2016 (Part II). The time and place for both parts is Saturday 9:00 AM to 12:30 in Sweeney Hall 229 (unless you are notified of a change). Please let Professor Brada-Williams know at least two weeks in advance if you plan to take one or both parts by submitting a completed self-survey of your reading (available on the web as part of the guidelines: www.sjsu.edu/english/graduate/ma/macomps.html). Computers will be supplied for the exam. Please note when you sign up whether you would prefer an Apple or PC computer.

MA COMPREHENSIVE EXAM FORMAT

Questions on the first part of the exam cover the reading list through the 18th century and those on the second part cover material from the Romantic period onward. Expect questions on or informed by literary theory in both parts. Each of the two parts takes three and a half hours and asks for three separate essays. Students may take one or both parts of the exam in any term and in any order. The reading list and guidelines for the exam are at <http://www.sjsu.edu/english/graduate/ma/macomps.html>. Copies of some previous exams are also posted on the website. Please note that section C of the Part 1 exam is a close reading of a poem and section C of the Part 2 exam is on World Literature.

MA & MFA FOREIGN LANGUAGE EXAMS

Both degree programs require a level of fluency in a second language equivalent to two years of college study of a language. If within five years of filing your program (achieving Candidacy), you have completed the fourth semester (or sixth quarter) of an approved university-level foreign language course sequence with a grade of “B” or better, you have already satisfied this requirement. Please bring that to the attention of your adviser when you file for candidacy. Students who have taken coursework longer than five years previous to filing for candidacy or who have acquired their language skills and knowledge outside of an academic institution can satisfy the foreign language requirement in French, German, or Spanish, by taking the following steps:

1. Contact a language advisor (see below) and request authorization to take a foreign language placement test administered in our Media Center.
2. If the placement test results show a level of 4th semester or higher, the student will take a proficiency exam administered by a faculty member in the World Languages department in order to confirm his or her level and discuss a path to improvement, if needed.
3. If placement test results show a lower than 4th semester language level, the student will have to take the appropriate level language course, based on a conversation with the appropriate World Languages faculty member.

DEADLINE FOR MA & MFA THESIS PROPOSALS

Thesis proposals must come to the Graduate Committee at least five weeks before the end of the semester preceding the semester in which you will enroll for 299 credits. If you plan to write your thesis or project in the Spring 2016 term, you must get your proposal to the Graduate Committee no later than Monday, November 2. Do not wait until the deadline approaches to get started. For guidelines for MFA theses and on how to write thesis proposals, see <http://www.sjsu.edu/english/graduate/mfa/mfathesis.html>. If you are an MA student you must see the guidelines for theses and the cover sheet at <http://www.sjsu.edu/english/graduate/ma/mathesis.html>. Once you have secured a thesis advisor or “first reader,” and the thesis advisor has carefully read and approved your proposal, you can submit your proposal electronically to the chair of the Graduate Committee (Noelle.Brada-Williams@sjsu.edu). Be sure to cc your thesis advisor in the email so that the Graduate Coordinator knows that the first reader has approved of the proposal being submitted to the Graduate Committee and has stated that it is ready for that step.

SPRING 2016 GRADUATE COURSES

At least 21 of the 30 units of classes required for the MA program should be in 200-numbered English courses. Of the 30, only 6 units can be taken as credit/no credit independent study of thesis units. Upper-division English coursework (100 level) may count for graduate students if you have received permission of the instructor as well as the MA or MFA Coordinator. Classes taken outside the department will not count except in unusual circumstances. Get prior approval from your advisor before you take such courses. Here are the courses, faculty, and meeting times for our seven Spring 2016 graduate course offerings:
