Course Description

English 1A is the first course in SJSU's two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the personal voice and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. Students will be introduced to citing sources.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT, such as LLD 2.

GE Learning Outcomes and Course Learning Outcomes

Classroom and General Protocols

Our classroom environment is everyone's responsibility. You are required to be courteous to your classmates and to the instructor. People sometimes forget that the classroom is a professional setting where the rules that govern a business meeting typically apply. For example, electronic devices such as cellular phones and laptop computers need to be turned off (unless a particular activity warrants their use, in which case the instructor will clearly indicate that), and you should avoid coming to class late: this impacts your learning and can also be distracting for everyone else.

If an emergency arises that requires your absence from class, or you are taken ill, you would do well to contact the instructor at your earliest opportunity by email. Simply prioritizing your education behind other time commitments does not constitute an emergency. Avoid falling behind in this fast-paced, intensive course. Exchanging contact info with at least one other student in the class is a very good idea.

Academic protocols for written work require that all quotations must be enclosed in quotation marks or, when more than three lines, put in an indented block. Full citation of the original author and source must also be included. For all papers, review The Everyday Writer for help with quote integration, formatting, and citation. See the SJSU policy on Academic Integrity (<http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/static/catalog/integrity.html>) for help defining and avoiding plagiarism.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, students are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

Final Assignment

Instead of a final exam, you will write a critical reflection (Paper 4) at the end of the class. Think of it as a scientific study of your progress as a writer over the next four months. Remember, writing is a process. Collecting your work and then reflecting on that work is part of the process. The final assignment is designed to get you thinking about your specific challenges, your strategies for improvement, your successes and failures, and your goals for the future. Every writer, no matter how accomplished, has room for improvement. This assignment is your culminating experience. This course does not have a final exam. However, we will meet on the final exam date for a final, culminating experience, which will include student final presentations.

Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area A3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B (English 2). A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English. This course must be passed with a C or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

In written assignments for English 1A, the grading scale is based on the following criteria:

A [90-92=A-, 93-96=A, 97-100=A+] = Excellent: The “A” essay is articulate and well developed with fluid transitions and a clear and persuasive use of examples, evidence, or research materials. An “A” essay contains a fresh insight which teaches the reader something new about the subject matter.

B [80-82=B-, 83-86=B, 87-89=B+] = Above average: The “B” essay demonstrates a good understanding of its subject, a clear and persuasive use of examples or evidence, a certain level of ease of expression, and solid organization. However, it usually lacks the level of originality and creativity that characterizes the insight found in an “A” essay.

C [70-72=C-, 73-76=C, 77-79=C+] = Average: The “C” essay makes a good attempt at all the assignment’s requirements. It has a reasonable understanding of its subject matter but its ideas are frequently simplistic or over-generalized. The writing style is also more bland and repetitive than the style shown by “A” and “B” essays and it often contains flaws in grammar, punctuation, spelling and/or word choice. It may also use examples or evidence out of context.

D [60-62=D-, 63-66=D, 67-69=D+] = Below Average: The “D” essay is poorly organized and generally unclear. It has inappropriate or inadequate examples, is noticeably superficial or simplistic, and/or contains some serious mechanical and grammatical problems. A “D” essay may also reveal some misunderstanding of the assignment requirements.

F = Failure: An “F” essay has not addressed the requirements of the assignment and is unacceptable work in terms of both form and content.

Canvas Submission (Turnitin.com) Requirement and Late Penalties

Rough drafts and final drafts of formal written assignments will be reviewed on turnitin.com, as will some of our Informal Writing (IW) assignments, for potential plagiarism. To receive any credit on each of these assignments, you must upload an electronic copy to Canvas (no separate submission to turnitin.com is required).

If neither the paper copy nor the electronic version is submitted, on time, on the day an assignment is due, 10% of the possible points (one full letter grade) will automatically be deducted from any grade the essay earns. If more than a week has passed after a due date and both paper and electronic versions have not been submitted, the assignment will not be accepted without prior instructor approval.

The only way to avoid late penalties is to contact the instructor in writing before the due date to explain your particular situation and to request a possible extension. Please note that any extension will be given at the instructor’s sole discretion. Similarly, if you miss an in-class essay exam, any make-up exam will be offered at the instructor’s sole discretion: depending on the circumstances, a grade penalty might also apply.

There is one exception to these stated penalties and procedures. Your final essay, Paper 4, will be subject to special conditions due to the limited time frame at the end of the semester. These will be clearly specified and explained when the essay is assigned.

Please note: Any assignment not turned in or not accepted—for whatever reason—will receive a zero, resulting in 0% or No Credit on that assignment. This applies to formal written assignments, in-class essay exams, informal writings, and class activities.

Course Grade Calculation Overview

Your final course grade will be determined based on a combination of formal written assignments, in-class essay exams, informal writing assignments, and class participation. More specifics on each are available in the Assignments table (Table 1) and in the Course Schedule table (Table 2). A brief listing and some basic information follow.

Paper 1: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 10% of course grade

Paper 2: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 20% of course grade

Paper 3: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 25% of course grade

Paper 4 (Final Exam): Letter Grade basis, A-F; 20% of course grade

In-Class Essay Exam 1: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 5% of course grade

In-Class Essay Exam 2: Letter Grade basis, A-F; 5% of course grade

Informal Writing Assignments: Credit, Partial Credit, or No Credit basis; 10% of course grade.

Class Participation: Credit, Partial Credit, or No Credit basis; 5% of course grade.

Please note: Class Participation credit will mainly be based on specific course activities, including the initial Writing Sample, group work, Canvas activities (discussion boards, etc.), Learning Curve exercises, and Final Presentation. Your participation grade will also be determined based on your overall contribution to the course throughout the semester.

University policy F69-24: “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.” Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf> for more details.
