Course Description

ENGL 1A is an introductory writing course that will help you understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, you will learn to think clearly and write effectively as you give form and coherence to complex ideas. You will explore writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

ENGL 1A Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to

- read actively and rhetorically;
- perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
- articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
- integrate your ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
- demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.

GE Area A2 Course Description

ENGL 1A fulfills the written communication general education requirement. Courses in GE Area A2 cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing in the university. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. A passing grade of C or better signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

ENGL 1A Course Requirements and Assignments

Writing Assignments: You will do a significant amount of reading and writing in various formats, in this course. Come to class prepared! There will be six essays (three out-of class, three in-class) and a Writing Notebook, totaling a minimum of 8,000 words. This total will include one substantial re-write. Out-of-class essays must be typed (Times New Roman 12 point font) and double-spaced, using MLA format. Peer review workshops are an essential part of improving your writing. You must be present at the workshops. Essays without the peer review drop a grade. Essays are expected on the due date: no late papers accepted.

***All essays must be completed to pass the course.*****

Reading Assignments: Read the assignments before class unless directed otherwise. Come to class ready to discuss the material.

Writing Notebook: This is your chance to write outside the essay format. The assignments include responses to texts/materials used in class and creations of your own. Each entry should be typed, double-spaced, (about 300 words). Include word count, date and title.

Oral Presentations/Participation:

Twice in the semester, you'll be asked to share your work with the class. Most class times involve discussion of ideas and concepts. You are encouraged to share your thoughts in class and in small discussion groups.

Quizzes: These are not always announced beforehand. Be prepared.

Attendance: Regular attendance and participation are expected. Assignments in class cannot be made up.

Grading Policy:

Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper's effectiveness, which are broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and expression. All assignments, quizzes, and exams are graded on a traditional A-F scale.

The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined by the SJSU Catalog (Grades-Letter Grading). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A+/A/A- = excellent; B+/B/B- = above average; C+/C/C- = average; D+/D/D- = below average; F = failure. Within any of the letter grade ranges (e.g. B+/B/B-), the assignment of a + or - grade will reflect stronger (+) or weaker (-) completion of the goals of the assignment.

Essays are typically evaluated using the following criteria:

A= Excellent: The "A" essay is organized and well-constructed. It demonstrates a clear understanding of the topic and has a focused thesis. Paragraphs are fully developed and discussion of the ideas is apt and specific. The student utilizes appropriate details, lively vocabulary, syntactic complexity and smooth transitions. This paper is virtually free of mechanical errors and is a pleasure to read.

B= Very Good: The "B" essay is less precise and not as convincing as the "A" paper. While it exhibits controlling ideas and supports them with specific examples, it may lack sentence variety and a consistent, smooth flow. This paper may contain minor grammatical/mechanical flaws, but it does show overall competence.

C= Adequate: The "C" essay responds to the essay topic but in a superficial or generalized way. The paragraphs exhibit a lack of firm control of the ideas and contain insufficient supportive detail. Word choice and syntax is somewhat immature and mechanical errors may be frequent enough to distract the reader.

D= Poor: The “D” essay makes an attempt to respond to the topic but is poorly organized, vague and lacks appropriate examples. The paper demonstrates weak control of ideas and contains serious mechanical and grammatical errors.

F=Unacceptable: The “F” essay does not fulfill any of the requirements of the assignment. It fails to address the topic, it lacks coherence, and it does not reflect mechanical or grammatical competence.

Your grade for the course will be determined as follows:

In-class essays: (Graded A-F)	25%
Out-of-class essays: (Graded A-F)	35%
Oral Presentation/Participation: (Graded A-F)	10%
Writing Notebook: (Points converted to letter grade)	20%
Quizzes: (Points converted to letter grade)	10%

A+ = 100-97%	A = 96-93%	A- = 92-90%
B+ = 89-87%	B = 86-83%	B- = 82-80%
C+ = 79-77%	C = 76-73%	C- = 72-70%
D+ = 69-67%	D = 66-63%	D- = 62-60%
F = 59-0% Unsatisfactory
