ENGL 1A Course Description

In this class, we will explore the themes of sustainability, creativity, and global citizenship through the lens of cultural diversity in America. The class will be divided into three units: Family Relationships, Language & Communication, and Prejudice & Stereotypes. We will use articles about issues that continue to surface in current events. We must ask ourselves how can our individual culture affect our understanding of what culture is? How can we use our personal privileges to understand and empathize with others? In this course, you will examine these questions and express your findings clearly and coherently.

English 1A is an introductory writing course that will help students understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, students will develop clear thinking and effective writing that give form and coherence to complex ideas. Students will practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

ENGL 1A Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to

- read actively and rhetorically;

- perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
- articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
- integrate your ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
- demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.

ENGL 1A Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. Students will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct their own arguments on complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing: Writing assignments shall give students repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 8000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Because in-class writing is valued and students should be able to perform well in timed writing situations, at least two essays shall be written in class. In addition, ENGL 1A classes require multiple out-of-class essays.

Reading: The reading in this class is comprised of readings from Writing Today and articles about current issue. You are expected to apply what you learn from WT to the assigned articles, whether it be ways to read critically or using what you read in your own writing.

Required Texts

Textbook

Writing Today (3rd Ed) – Johnson-Sheehan, Paine
ISBN: 978-0321984654

The Everyday Writer, Andrea Lunsford—Available on Canvas

Other Readings

All the articles we will look at can be found on Canvas.

ENGL 1A Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

The following are the criteria by which essays are typically evaluated in first-year writing courses:

An “A” essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.

A “B” essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.

A “C” essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.

A “D” essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.

An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

You must receive a C- or higher in order to pass this course.

Late Policy: For the major assignments, unexcused late work will be automatically knocked down two full letter grades. (i.e. A C+ is the highest you can get.) I will not accept late work if it’s more than two days late after the due date. Requests for extensions will be treated case-by-case. Inform me at least 48 hours in advance.

Smaller take-home assignments (reading responses, outlines, etc) will not be accepted at all if late. In-class work will also not be accepted late. Those points will be docked from your participation.

Assignment Format: All outside assignments should be typed and in 12-point font, one-inch margins, in Times New Roman font, and MLA format. In-class assignments should be in blue or black ink. No pencil!

Classroom Protocol

Participation: If you are not in class, you cannot participate. Participation includes coming to class prepared, asking thoughtful questions, listening to your classmates and instructor, and contributing to the class discussion. Points will be given based on how well you do these things. Participation does not include sleeping, studying for another class, or asking for repeated instructions. Participation in classroom discussions after each reading response is required.

Attendance: If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to get in touch with me. If you miss class and do not contact me within 24 hours of your absence, you will NOT be able to make up any missed assignments. All the readings and assignments are on the syllabus as well as on Canvas. This is a college course. If you miss a class, you are missing valuable information. Arrive on time and stay until the end of class. Arriving late or leaving early will result in a loss of participation points.

Electronics: Laptops and smart phones may be used to access class materials. Obviously, you shouldn't be on Facebook, Instagram, etc. If I see you off task and using your phones excessively during discussions, I will deduct participation points.

Food: Drinks are permitted. "Quiet" snacks that do not interfere or disrupt class are also permitted. Do not bring whole meals or anything with a crunch or a smell. Clean up if you spill something.

Consideration: As we will be discussing many topics of sensitivity, remember to be considerate. The classroom is a safe place for everyone to express and explore ideas. Be respectful, even if you do not agree with someone's opinion. Do not antagonize others.
