Grading Policy

*Student's must receive a "C-" or higher in order to pass this course.

The department's standard grading scheme consists of the following: Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper's effectiveness, which is broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and expression.

1. "A" range essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student's ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.
2. "B" range essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an "A" essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.
3. "C" range essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.
4. "D" range essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.
5. "F" essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

Extra credit

- A fifth critical response will be accepted for extra credit. This is option is only available if you have completed the first 4 critical responses.
- A final round of revisions will be made available after the Final Draft is graded. Students may revise for an additional 10 points towards the paper's final grade.

Late work

- Late work is accepted if you reach out to me and communicate the issue at hand. The only way late work will be accepted, past the due date and without communication, is in the case of an emergency. If there is an emergency, you must provide written documentation.
- There are four units to this course that are centered on each essay. Work that is submitted past its unit, will receive an automatic ten point reduction, per new unit. List of the percentage weight [or point value] assigned to various class assignments

Classroom Protocol

Attendance

- San Jose State University mandates, "Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading according to University Policy F-69-24." At the same time, all of the essays are contextualized through in-class lectures, discussions, activities, and writing. - You are adults, if you need to leave early or if you arrive late, please do so on your own accord. Later, send me an email and explain what the issue is.

Respect and Participation

- No one has to like anyone, but everyone has to work together.
- Please bring your laptops, tablets and cell phones to class. Keep the volume off on all electronic devices. If you have an emergency, please step outside at your volition.
- If the discussions are not engaging the subject matter, we will switch to in-class writing assignments.
