Faculty Web Page and MYSJSU Messaging

Copies of the course materials such as the syllabus, major assignment handouts, etc. may be found on my faculty web page accessible through Canvas. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU (or other communication system as indicated by the instructor).

Course Description

English 22 surveys important works of fantasy and science fiction in the past two hundred years both here and abroad.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

My personal goal is to share the sense of wonder that these works inspire.

GE/SJSU Studies Learning Outcomes (LO), if applicable

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- (1) Recognize how significant works illuminate enduring human concerns

- (2) Respond to significant works by writing research-based critical analyses and personal responses
- (3) Write clearly and effectively (writing will be assessed for correctness, clarity, and conciseness).

Course Content Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- (1) Examine significant works of the human intellect and imagination
- (2) Understand the historical and cultural contexts in which such texts were created
- (3) Recognize the accomplishments and issues related to women and diverse cultures reflected in such texts

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

The Prentice Hall Anthology of Science Fiction and Fantasy
(ISBN 0-13-021280-6) along with two exam books for book review and final exam

Other Readings

Some assigned readings are online or in hand-outs distributed in class.

Classroom Protocol

There is no provision for late work. Students are expected to come to class on time with their textbooks and homework ready to answer questions on the assigned reading for that day. Please no text-messaging, phoning, or nonclass-related computer use during class.

Dropping and Adding: Drop deadline is Aug. 31. Add deadline is Sep 18

Assignments and Grading Policy

In English 22 most homework will be reading assignments and most class work will be discussions of the readings. However, there will be participation grades given for special homework assignments and classroom activities. Furthermore, there will be three exams to test reading, writing, and comprehension, along with two writing assignments (book review and short story) and a final exam. Here is the breakdown of grades:

Three identification tests on readings	60%
100-word in-class book review of a work of fantasy/science fiction	10%
1000-word fantasy/science fiction story (typed) based upon current events	10%

Participation ( $\sqrt{+}=100$ , $\sqrt{=}85$ , $\sqrt{-}=70$ )	10%
Final Exam (in-class essay upon the theme of wonder)	10%

University Policies

Academic integrity

The link below contains university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc.

<http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/index.html>

In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, the student can contact the department chair as the next step.

All relevant policies are listed for students at http://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program\_policies/index.html

Student Technology Resources (Optional)

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library.

A wide variety of audio-visual equipment is available for student checkout from Media Services located in IRC 112. These items include digital and VHS camcorders, VHS and Beta video players, 16 mm, slide, overhead, DVD, CD, and audiotape players, sound systems, wireless microphones, projection screens and monitors.

SJSU Writing Center (Optional)

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff/.
