Course Description

English 112A is an upper division course designed to introduce the literature of childhood experience to adult readers. Although children are the central characters and the main readers, writers of this genre structure their works using many of the same complex literary devices and themes found in adult literature. We will discuss these techniques as we analyze the readings, which represent a variety of cultures and ethnic diversity. While the assigned readings are all chapter books, students will also have the opportunity to become familiar with picture books, fairy tales, and folk tales. This course is designed to meet the subject matter requirement for those considering a teaching credential; though the information and curriculum approaches that we will explore will be helpful for elementary, middle, or secondary levels of instruction, this is a literature class, not an educational methodology class.

English Department Student Learning Objectives (SLOs)

Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

1. Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of Children's Literature.

3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, context, and the nature of the subject.
4. Develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively.
5. Articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts.

Reading is a crucial part of this course. We move fairly quickly through the works. Look ahead on the syllabus and make sure you have your reading completed for the class. (SLO 1&2)

Class Participation and Home Work:

This course is primarily based on discussion. Participation means that you have read the material and are ready to contribute your ideas and questions. Reading responses, quizzes, and presentations also factor into this portion of your course grade. In-class assignments cannot be made up; therefore, be sure not to miss class, and be there on time. (SLO 1, 4 & 5)

You will write a minor paper on an assigned course text using MLA format and present this essay to the class. (SLO 2&3)

In English Department courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas conveyed. Your grade depends on what you say—and how you say it. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

Dropping and Adding: Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, academic renewal, etc. Refer to the current semester's catalog policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html> for any add/drop deadlines, policies, and procedures section and specific registration information. Late drop policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.
