

Scholarships for Public Relations

Dennis Wilcox Scholarship

Students who are Public Relations majors planning to participate in a short-course or semester abroad as part of their undergraduate or graduate study. Must be fully matriculated, in good standing, and have a minimum GPA of 2.5.

Students who plan Independent Study Abroad will be given secondary consideration. If, in any year, no Public Relations majors apply or are qualified, students majoring Advertising, Journalism, or Mass Communications may be awarded.

Supplemental Questions

1. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.

Dwight Bentel Scholarship

For undergraduate majors in their junior year or first semester seniors majoring in any of the department's degree programs.

Supplemental Questions

1. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.

Louis A. Duino Scholarship

For junior or senior students who have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in their major field of study and demonstrate financial need.

Supplemental Questions

1. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.

Lowell C. Pratt Scholarship

For a public relations major with junior class standing and a 3.0 GPA who shows promise of success in the field of public relations.

Supplemental Questions

2. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.

Matthew Garcia Memorial Scholarship

To provide scholarships to public relations majors planning to participate in an independent study in the JMC Department. If in any given year no public relations majors apply or qualify, students majoring in journalism or mass communications may be awarded scholarships. Students must be fully matriculated, in good standing, and have a minimum GPA of 2.5

Supplemental Questions

1. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.

Robert & McKenzie Burpee Scholarship Endowment

To provide scholarships to students pursuing a degree in public relations. Student must be in good academic standing in the program and with the university.

Supplemental Questions

1. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.

Gary Radine Honorary Scholarship

To provide scholarships for full time undergrad students majoring in Public Relations

Supplemental Questions

1. Please include a one-page essay discussing your academic background, professional goals, financial need, and your specific qualifications for the scholarship you are applying for.