

Internships Available

San Francisco Living Wage Coalition

Redstone Building - 2940 – 16th Street., rm. 301 (near Capp St.)

A short walk from the 16th and Mission BART station

(415) 863 1225

www.livingwage-sf.org

We are seeking student activists interested in making profound changes in the lives of working people in San Francisco. The SF Living Wage Coalition is part of a movement addressing the issues of social and economic injustice.

Interns are needed in the areas of

- Outreach – Visit work sites to inform workers of their rights to wages and benefits under San Francisco’s laws.
- Research/Writing – Research background information on economic justice issues, assist in writing outreach materials and newsletter, translating skills much needed!
- Events – Plan and execute events accordingly per organizational needs.
- Web Design – Maintain and update www.livingwage-sf.org on a regular basis.

Perks

- * Hours are flexible
- * Mentoring
- * Networking
- * Community service credit for classes/grad school

Contact Campaign Co-Directors David Frias or Karl Kramer

@ 415 863 1225 or sflivingwage@riseup.net

“It's Time for A Living Wage”