

SJC is a 501(c)(3) law office providing high quality immigration services to low-income individuals in the Bay Area. We specialize in deportation defense. We provide direct representation to individuals in the process of being deported from this country, including requests for humanitarian relief such as asylum and withholding and visas for victims of crime and domestic violence.

Legal Intern Volunteer Opportunities

Why SJC?

- Great opportunity to get experience in the legal profession
- SJC is a small office so you will be exposed to a great variety of tasks and responsibilities
- Volunteering for SJC is a rewarding experience
- Practice your interpersonal skills and get experience working one-on-one with clients!
- SJC takes its role as mentor seriously

Typical Intern Tasks

- Interfacing with clients and court personnel, including interviewing potential and active clients
- Writing reports and research conditions of other countries
- Translating written documents and/or providing in-person interpretation
- Drafting letters to clients
- Filing court documents and providing litigation support
- Volunteering at SJC events, such as clinics

If you want to volunteer, please email your resume and a brief statement of interest to Emily Abraham
office@socialjusticecollaborative.org
510.992.3964