Data for ILD's 9 CSU Campuses

In the four years of ILD's legal educational partnership with our 9 CSU campuses,<sup>1</sup> ILD attorneys provided 5,052 individual one-on-one consultations to 3,055 students, 164 faculty/staff, 1,505 family members, and 328 alumni. In addition, ILD has opened 3,750 cases for immigration legal services representation. ILD has served clients from 99 countries,<sup>2</sup> who reside in 43 California counties. Our clients ranged in age from infant to 95, with the vast majority being over age 17 and under 50.

In addition to our direct legal services over the past four years, ILD conducted 163 presentations reaching 5,900 individuals, including in-person and Zoom presentations, CSU system-wide webinars, trainings for staff and faculty, discussions with student groups, and information sessions for student government leaders. Additionally, ILD attorneys participated in dozens of meetings with campus student-leaders and faculty/staff for in-depth discussions on requested immigration law and policy topics, along with several social media live stories.

ILD also authors a blog on current relevant immigration law and policy topics for our CSU campuses. As well as co-host a podcast with the Fresno State Dream Success Center that focuses on immigration law and policy topics raised by students on the campuses we are serving and feature guest speakers from the national immigration law and policy field. Our blog and podcast are available at www.ild.org.
