SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY AND THE SANTA CLARA VALLEY TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY RECEIVE THE PARKING COUNCIL BEST PRACTICES AWARD FROM THE INSTITUTE OF TRANSPORTATION ENGINEERS

ST. LOUIS, MO— San Jose State University and the Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority received the Parking Council Best Practices Award at the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) 2011 Annual Meeting and Exhibit, held August 13–16, in St. Louis, MO, USA for its "Parking Utilization Survey of Transit-Oriented Development in Residential Properties in Santa Clara County."

The research was clear and concise and provided an abundance of information with respect to an area where little information currently exists.

ITE is an international educational and scientific association of transportation professionals who are responsible for meeting mobility and safety needs. ITE facilitates the application of technology and scientific principles to research, planning, functional design, implementation, operation, policy development and management for any mode of ground transportation. Through its products and services, ITE promotes professional development of its members, supports and encourages education, stimulates research, develops public awareness programs and serves as a conduit for the exchange of professional information.

Founded in 1930, ITE is a community of transportation professionals including, but not limited to transportation engineers, transportation planners, consultants, educators and researchers. Through meetings, seminars, publications and a network of nearly 17,000 members, working in more than 90 countries, ITE is your source for expertise, knowledge and ideas.
